FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

In a recent New York Times Sunday Review there was an article written by an American woman who has lived in Germany for the last several years. The article dealt with the post-surgery care the author received from her German doctors, after her hysterectomy compared to the post-surgery care her teenage daughter received after having wisdom teeth removed. The article was not about the German Health Care System, but the author did make this comment "I did say that this story is not about the benefits of universal health care, but for the sake of accuracy, let me add that this hysterectomy was not without cost. After my surgery, I had to pay $25 for the taxi ride home." (Firoozeh Dumas, "After Surgery in Germany, I Wanted Vicodin, Not Herbal Tea," Sunday Review, 1/27/18)

Recently I had two spots of basal cell skin cancer removed. When I arrived at the doctor's office for the procedure I presented my insurance card to the receptionist and she told me "you have a deductible and coins (coinsurance) and you will probably be getting a bill." The receptionist was correct, based on the statements I see online, I will be receiving an invoice for several hundred dollars.

I don't know anyone in Germany, but I do have a classmate serving a church in Canada. I contacted him and asked him what a similar procedure would cost in Canada. He replied "The procedure would be free, as in paid for

After many years of service Don Howarth's time in our consistory has ended; please thank Don for his many years of service. Don and Lynne transferred to Salem in February 2012; he joined the consistory in March and became President in August. Don served as president for two terms, vice president for one term and as bookkeeper for almost six years. During his years of service he implemented a new computerized financial system which continues to be updated as needed.

Prior to the installation of our new furnaces in 2013 Don would come in every Friday to check on the old temperamental furnaces to make sure they still worked.

...for through taxes. You'd be responsible for some out-patient medication which you might have supplemental insurance for, but the procedure, in patient meds, and generic meds would be covered."

In 2009 our General Synod adopted a resolution stating "Based on our belief that health care is not only a basic human NEED but also a basic human RIGHT and our belief that it is a moral imperative to transform health care so that it is: inclusive, accessible, affordable and accountable, the Twenty-seventh General Synod calls upon the United Church of Christ in all its settings to act with urgency to: --affirm its support for universal health care which meets the following criteria: 1) it covers all persons; 2) it presents no financial barriers; 3) it provides comprehensive benefits; 4) it offers a choice of physicians and other health providers; and 5) it eliminates racial, ethnic and all other disparities for health care." (Resolution 09-GS-44)

On February 10th I participated in the Healthcare Justice Workshop sponsored by POWER, the Penn Northeast Conference and the Pennsylvania Southeast Conference. After hearing the other participants share their experiences of our healthcare system it is clear to me that we must do better. I believe we can.

BEING THE HANDS & FEET OF JESUS

Bill Andrews thanks for passing along these tax tips!

In addition to supporting non-profits of their choice, contributions can also provide donors with specific tax benefits.

The new federal tax laws may allow you an additional tax break for your charitable contributions, including your giving to Salem, as follows:

If you are over 70.5 years old, and if you taking required minimum distributions (RMD) from a retirement account, such as an IRA, then, even if you claim (the increased) standard deduction, you can obtain a financial benefit from your charitable giving by designating all or part of the RMD as a qualified charitable distribution (QCD).

Consider speaking to your IRA custodian on how to make a qualified charitable distribution, and to a tax advisor to review your own circumstances. Also, look for additional information about QCD's on the table in Fellowship Hall.

Don Jones, thank you for this information on the Reflection and Memorial Garden Directory.

Don Jones, Grace Conger and Loretta Daubert are compiling information for a directory of bricks in the garden. If you wish to provide a photograph of and a few words about your loved one submit the material to Don, Grace or Loretta.

There will be a separate page for each individual brick represented.

We will provide a picture of the brick and its location.

John Lyman believes in sharing his talents with Salem and others. Not only did he step up when asked to fill a consistory vacancy he shared his carpentry skills to craft a beautiful new work table for our kitchen. Thank you John!

The old table is available for free!

John wants to know if you have any unwanted blankets, sweaters, etc.

A group in Pocono Lake makes sleeping bags for the homeless using old blankets, sweaters, worn-out jackets, and anything else that has insulating value. They also can use canvas, cotton or synthetics for the outer layer.

Please bring any such items to the church and leave on the stage. They will find a good home supporting extremely marginalized people.

Sharing our knowledge and our skills with others.

COUNTING OUR BLESSINGS

God provides “every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough, we may share abundantly in every good work” (2 Corinthians 9:8)

The table below presents a snapshot of Salem’s income and expenses for the year 2017. In short, we continue to be blessed with sufficient resources to support God’s work here at Salem and beyond.

Regular tithes and offerings last year more than covered staff compensation and other operating expenses, as well as funds used to support outreach to the TOMEK food pantry, backpack program, and other ministries beyond our walls.

Additional spending in 2017 for renovations and repairs in the sanctuary, partially offset by designated donations and memorial gifts, resulted in an overall net deficit (an excess of spending over income) for the year. Thankfully, as planned, this shortfall was covered by withdrawals from cash savings accumulated in prior years.

We trust that God will continue to bless Salem with the resources needed to carry on the ministries He is calling us to do here.

Thank you for your past and ongoing support. Your contributions make it possible for Salem to fulfill its mission here in Pocono Pines and beyond.

SALEM ARCHIVES

By: Susan Kratzinger

I didn't find much mention in the ledgers about Easter. But here is what I found. "A Meeting of the Reformed Sunday School held in the Salem Reformed Church, Sunday, Feb. 18, 1900. It was moved & seconded that we have an Easter Service. It was moved & seconded that we get 70 'Bow of Promise'." Two weeks later, at a meeting on March 4, 1900, this was an entry, "It was moved & seconded that we pay Floyd Miller $2.10 to pay for the 'Bow of Promise'." (Believe it or not, you can still find this on Amazon: Bow of Promise: Hymns New And Old For Missionary And Revival Meetings And Sabbath-Schools Hardcover – 1898. This hymnal was published as a companion to The Finest of the Wheat Hymnal. The book contains 253 hymns in piano arrangements.)

I found many booklets among the Archives for readings and plays at Easter. For example, I found a pamphlet by Eldridge Church Entertainments entitled Two Readings for Easter Time: "Good Friday" and "Easter Morn". Each of the poems is about 3 pages long, and together they would be an interesting juxtaposition. Here are the first stanzas of each poem:

From "Good Friday"

O, day of sadness! Day of deepest gloom!
Day of the cross, the earthquake, and the tomb!
Day when our blessed Lord was crucified!
Day when the hope of all the world had died!

From "Easter Morn"

O, day of gladness! Day of deepest joy!
Day of the angels! Bliss without alloy!
Day of the vision! Of the empty tomb!
When Easter morn dispelled the midnight gloom!

Here are some of the other plays and booklets in our collection from the past: By This Sign Conquer! A pageant Play for Easter, Songs of the Dawning: An Easter Service, Pageantry for Easter, All Hail: An Easter Pageant, The Road to Jerusalem: An Easter Pageant (with music), The Christ of the Centuries: A Complete Pageant for Easter. So I believe the Salem Sunday School enjoyed some kind of performance annually at Easter, usually a pageant with accompanying music.

I think our Easter service last year was very beautiful, when we gathered at the cross in the garden before moving inside for our joyous church celebration. We may not do pageants, but our service is still very meaningful, accompanied by Pieter's wonderful music. I wish you all a blessed and joyous Easter in 2018.
